PRESS RELEASE

“The Edge Of Love”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema in Liphook will be “The Edge Of Love” on Friday 6 February 2009.

The Edge Of Love concerns itself with writer Dylan Thomas (Mathew Rhys) and his love of two women - his Irish wife Caitlin (Sienna Miller) and sultry singer Vera (Keira Knightley). Thomas is a bounder, a drunk whose leering eye falls on the nearest woman and stays there; Caitlin, who wouldn't be the most monogamous of people either, turns a blind eye to her husband's indiscretions but knows there's more than just sexual attraction between childhood sweethearts Thomas and Vera. Much to Thomas's chagrin, Vera marries soldier William Killick (Cillian Murphy) but when he's posted abroad the three move to Wales to get away from the war. William scared by war, comes back a changed man and finds that Vera is no longer the carefree cabaret girl he married. Neighbourhood gossip, together with Dylan's open mockery of soldier-heroes, fuels William's anger. Enraged, he stages a violent attack that forces Vera to chose between the men in her life and the friend that she loves.

Doors open at 7.30pm and the performance starts at 8.00 pm. Tickets are priced at £5 with a concession of £4 for OAP (60 and over). Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by email liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A bar will be open and a range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as 15; suitable only for 15 years and older.
