PRESS RELEASE

“Angels and Demons”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema will be “Angels and Demons” on Friday 6th November 2009.

In ‘Angels and Demons’, Ron Howard's thrilling follow-up to the 2006 blockbuster ‘The Da Vinci Code’, expert symbologist Robert Langdon (Tom Hanks) follows ancient clues on a heart-racing hunt through Rome to find the four Cardinals kidnapped by the deadly secret society, the ‘Illuminati’. With the Cardinals' lives on the line, and the Camerlengo (Papal Chamberlain - Ewan McGregor) desperate for help, Langdon embarks on a non-stop, action-packed race through sealed crypts, dangerous catacombs, and the most secretive vault on Earth!

Based on the novel by Dan Brown, Angels and Demons has registered a total of about $800 million in a worldwide box office smash.

Doors open at 7.30 p.m. and the performance starts at 8 p.m. Tickets are priced at £5, with a concession of £4 for OAPs (60 and over) and young people under 15 years of age. Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office – Tel: 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by e-mail: liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as a 12A – suitable for 12 years and over. No-one younger than 12 may see a ‘12A’ film in a cinema unless accompanied by an adult and films classified ‘12A’ are not recommended for a child below 12. Films classified as 12A may upset children under 12 or contain material which many parents would find unsuitable for them.

The Cinema Licence for the Liphook Millennium Centre requires that children under the age of 15 can only be admitted if accompanied by an adult.

31st October 2009.
