PRESS RELEASE

“Coco before Chanel”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema in Liphook will be “Coco before Chanel” on Friday 5 March 2010.

“Coco before Chanel” is the story of Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel (Audrey Tatou), who was abandoned by her father following the death of her mother, worked her way up through society's strata to become 'Coco', the fashion world's most famous figure, and fell for English playboy Boy Capel (Alessandro Nivola) along the way.

Gabrielle Chanel began her life as headstrong orphan, being raised in a convent school, where she learned to embroider and sew. Bored and dissatisfied with the living she could earn as a seamstress, she began singing in backstreet cafés and bars. Through an extraordinary journey, she became the legendary couturier who embodied the modern woman and became a timeless symbol of success, freedom, and style. The film portrays the formative years of Chanel's life, the years Chanel spent discovering and inventing herself. Armed with wit, determination and an audacious sense of style, she took the best elements of men's clothing – fabric, cut, line and comfort – and invented clothes that took women out of the corset and transformed their lives.

Doors open at 7.30pm and the performance starts at 8.00pm. Tickets are priced at £5, with a concession of £4 for OAPs (60 and over). Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by email liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as 12; suitable only for persons 12 years and older.
