PRESS RELEASE

“Revolutionary Road”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema in Liphook will be “Revolutionary Road” on Friday 4 September 2009.

Based on a novel by Richard Yates and directed by Sam Mendes, and a film for which Kate Winslet won a Golden Globe, “Revolutionary Road” is about a young couple living in a Connecticut suburb during the mid-1950s. They are struggling to come to terms with their personal problems while trying to raise their two children. Frank Wheeler (Leonardo DiCaprio) works at a job he hates in New York, and commutes back to his wife (Kate Winslet) and their two children. She feels that none of them should live in their “cookie-cutter” town and should move to Paris. Their next door neighbour becomes involved (Michael Shannon) and the drama unfolds around their quest for happiness. Frank and April’s marriage is not as perfect as it seems to the outside world and the audience witness their downfall.

Doors open at 7.30pm and the performance starts at 8.00pm. Tickets are priced at £5 with a concession of £4 for OAP (60 and over). Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by email liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as 15; suitable only for 15 years and older. The Cinema Licence for the Liphook Millennium Hall requires that children under the age of 16 can only be admitted if accompanied by an adult.
